Director Updates

- Playground at Krashes update
 - Sheriff's office will provide 4 – 5 people. May be 2 teams depending on work being done on Thursday
 - Sterling concrete $650 - $700 3 ½ cubic yards
 - Andy from O'Brien & Sons says we have 24 holes for play structure
- Princetonfest
 - Vendors were disappointed about closing down early due to rain
 - Hollie offered them an early signing fee waiver for next year
- Field updates
 - Goal areas are worn. Will need to move goals for next year
 - Line painting machine cost $3000, will need a way to clean after use
 - Glen from DPW will begin pulling up fence at TPS softball field
 - Heritage Landscaping too busy to bid on softball/Babe Ruth field
- After School programs
 - Younger children can join programs, depending on the instructor
- Misc.
 - Emily will become chairperson of P&R
 - Unibank for on-line payment. Hollie will work to set this up
 - Historic committee inquiry regarding the upstairs space at Krashes for storing items. Committee voted against it, because P&R presently stores items in that space, no security, no fire alarm and no heating/cooling system.

Financials

- Received donation for playground from Pop Warner $320
- Deferred until next month. Hollie will work with the town to get financial statements in order
